

Formal Herb Gardens

Photos: Ian Adams

Formal gardens often follow a geometric design. A focal point is usually placed in the center.

Rectangular garden of thyme, basil, and parsley.

A knot garden at the Hertford Museum in Hertfordshire, England.

The circular garden above is made with an old wagon wheel placed on a circle of bricks.

